STATEMENT OF CLAIM

Jenntiff's manner of dress has been critizized by all female defendant(s) in this matter and Plaintiff contends that they initiated the following actions in an effort to punish me for insubordination. There are no rules posted to direct the manner in which a person chooses to dress and I contend that the unlawful direct order to take my T-Shirt out of my underwear is a discriminatory action that is not designated for the female inmate population.

Assuming arguendo that it is not based on gender, the only other alternative considering all the following misconduct, is that the order was age-blased.

Conspiracy

- 4) Defendant (s) Rudder and Capt. Faulks #1304 falsely accused me of the charge of Threats to Staff in violation of rule 127. 10 with the express desire to maliciously and sadistically cause the Plaintiff harm with punishment has the end result.
  - S) Disciplinary Hearing Captain Jone Doe and C.O. Kinloch # 13764 conspired together to find me guilty of this charge without the benitit of a hearing to address this charge.
  - b) Cart. Faulks and Capt. Vallero denied the Plaintiff emergency medical treatment on 1/8/2016 that resulted in me falling down one flight of stairs and recieving numerous unnecessary injuries.
- Plaintiff with a Disciplinary Disposition on 12/9/2015 which served to prevent me from appealing any adverse Disciplinary ruling
